

Diego Zamora Group appoints Antony Kime as Global Duty Free Director

By Ryan White on January, 21 2014 | People

Diego Zamora Group, the brandowner of Licor 43, Villa Massa Limocello, Ramon Bilbao and Mar de Frades has announced the appointment of Antony Kime to the position of Global Duty Free Director, reporting to Thomas Clamens, Diego Zamora Managing Director International. Antony will be in charge of global strategy development and execution in Travel Retail and Duty Free.

Said Clamens: "Antony brings extensive relevant experience to Diego Zamora after his tenure as EMEA and North America Travel Retail Manager at Beam Global. He will focus on increasing the opportunities for consumers to experience and buy our brands in this important channel for our business. Many of our brands, such as Licor 43, are experiencing rapid global growth. Antony will concentrate on building awareness and driving value in key locations around the globe.”