

Salt Lake City Airport unveils new retail roster

By Mary Jane Pittilla on January, 4 2019 | Airlines & Airports

Salt Lake City International Airport (SLC) has announced the retail, news and gift stores for the first phase of The New SLC Redevelopment Program opening in fall 2020.

Hudson Group, Paradies Lagardère, Sweet Ventures, Inc, XpresSpa – representing 29 stores – have been selected for the first phase of The New SLC.

A mix of local, regional and national stores were chosen, including brands new to SLC Airport, such as Coach, Frye, King’s English, Hip & Humble and MAC.

In addition, traditional shops currently located in the airport are part of the mix, such as Dufry Duty Free, No Boundaries and Utah!.

“Our team went through an extensive selection process to get the right combination of local, regional and national brands for those traveling through SLC,” said Bill Wyatt, Executive Director, Salt Lake City Department of Airports.

“We are thrilled with the outcome and I think our passengers will be excited with the combination of dynamic shops opening in 2020.”

SLC Airport will also implement street pricing in shops located in the new facilities. This means passengers will pay the same price charged at the store locations outside of the airport.

The first phase of The New SLC will include a central terminal, the west end of two concourses and a parking garage.

It will be completed in the fall of 2020, with the second phase scheduled to be finished in late 2024.

Salt Lake City International Airport serves more than 25 million passengers per year and is the 25th busiest airport in North America and 85th busiest in the world. More than 325 flights depart daily to more than 97 non-stop destinations.