

Airmall serves up new retail offerings at Baltimore/Washington International

By Jas Ryat on November, 8 2016 | Retailers

The Airmall shopping complex at Baltimore/Washington International Thurgood Marshall Airport (BWI Marshall) has welcomed three new brands to its growing retail mix.

“We are very pleased to introduce new local brands and national specialty retailers that will delight travelers and meet their needs,” said Brett Kelly, Vice President of Airmall Maryland. “These new arrivals add to an exciting array of new and established brands to the Airmall that travelers seek out at BWI Marshall.”

The new NYS Collection 300 square foot eyewear boutique in Concourse C offers a full range of fashionable sunglasses and eyewear for men and women. Styles include the trend-setting New York line, polarized Signature series, luxury Elite label and a high-quality selection of readers.

At the new gourmet popcorn retailer Popsations Popcorn Company (300 square feet) in Concourse A/B, travelers can find popcorn made in small batches with artisan recipes and mixed by hand to create distinctive flavors such as Crabby Caramel and Classic Cheddar. Based in Timonium, Maryland, Popsations joins BWI Marshall's extensive line-up of locally owned and operated concessions.

A new Be Relax Spa (586 square feet) in Concourse C offers a wide range of wellbeing and relaxation services including chair massages, manicures, oxygen and aromatherapy and skincare treatments, such as the Anti Jet Lag treatment that fights fatigue. Be Relax helps travelers unwind and relax before taking off.

"Our concessions program continues to deliver quality products and outstanding service for BWI Marshall passengers," said Ricky Smith, Chief Executive Officer, BWI Marshall. "These new offerings will help ensure an excellent travel experience for our customers while offering more job opportunities to the Baltimore-Washington region.