

Furla opens new diplomatic store in Washington DC

Furla's new space in Washington DC's diplomatic duty free store, operated in partnership with Carisam

Furla has opened a new store in Washington DC's diplomatic duty free shop, in partnership with US-based operator Carisam.

The 7 square meter personalized space opened officially with the Italian accessories brand's Spring/Summer 2019 collection on March 1.

"We would like to extend our sincere thanks to Carisam for their support of the brand and assistance with this new store opening," said Furla.
