

Jean Paul Gaultier has fun in red with Classique Cabaret

Jean Paul Gaultier's Classique Cabaret edp is an oriental orange blossom fragrance inspired by the fun of the cabaret

Puig has added a new limited-edition feminine fragrance, Classique Cabaret, to the Jean Paul Gaultier range.

Classique Cabaret edp is available now in Europe travel retail and will be on-shelf in the Americas and Asia Pacific from February 1 and the Middle East from March 1 for a limited time.

Inspired by the fun of the cabaret, the oriental orange blossom fragrance features amber, ginger and vanilla notes.

The Classique Cabaret fragrance is housed in Jean Paul Gaultier's signature female silhouette bottle reworked in a red, glittery dress, paying homage to the world of cabaret that Gaultier is fond of.

The bottle is presented in Gaultier's signature tin can, this time in red with gold stars adorning the front.