

Jean Paul Gaultier sets sail with In The Navy limited edition

Jean Paul Gaultier's new Le Mâle In The Navy fragrance will hit shelves in the Middle East in March

Puig has extended the Jean Paul Gaultier Le Mâle fragrance range with a new limited-edition edt.

In The Navy (125ml) is available now in travel retail Europe, the Americas and Asia Pacific and will hit shelves in the Middle East in March.

An aquatic, aromatic oriental fougère, the key fragrance notes are peppermint, vanilla and ambergris.

The dark blue flacon takes the shape of Jean Paul Gaultier's signature male torso decorated with blue and white stripes, reminiscent of navy uniforms.

The box comes in a playful design featuring two arm-wrestling sailors.
