

Kansai Airport unveils Hugo Boss store

Kansai International Airport has welcomed the new Hugo Boss boutique at its Terminal 1

German lifestyle brand Hugo Boss has opened its boutique at Osaka's Kansai International Airport (KIX) Terminal 1 on March 11, 2020.

The new boutique is located at the post security area of Terminal 1. It will focus on Boss' menswear collection, which includes sophisticated business styles, casual everyday wear and active athleisure outfits.

The new store focuses on Boss' menswear collection

Founded in 1924, Hugo Boss is a sustainable fashion brand that is known for its premium portfolio that promises quality and excellent fit.

In a press release, Kansai Airport said it is committed to developing exciting stores and restaurants at the airports it operates to provide customers with an enjoyable and comfortable travel experience.