Belgian confectioner Leonidas has selected a snow globe motif for its limited-edition Christmas Collection, which has hit the shelves in travel retail outlets across Europe, the Middle East and Asia.

Inside the snow globe a cute little girl with a festive bobble hat can be seen running along clutching a chocolate gift box.

Highlights of the Leonidas Christmas Collection 2018 include a red 14-piece Christmas tree-shaped gift box, an Advent calendar, and an eye-catching 31-piece Christmas Gold Gift Box containing a selection of smooth ganaches, pralinés and caramels in milk, dark and white chocolate selected specially by the Leonidas Maître Chocolatier.

A generous ballotin, a gift cube and a 19-piece gift box assortment complete the collection, all encased in festive red and gold wrapping with the snow globe motif.

Leonidas chocolates are manufactured in Belgium from 100% cocoa butter and fresh ingredients.
