

Beaute Luxe expands teams in Dubai and Paris

Beaute Luxe, which has three offices in strategic locations around the world, has announced new members of its duty free teams in Dubai and Paris.

The company's Dubai office has a new Vice President of Sales, Edouard Roose, and a new EMEA Travel Retail Director, Viviane Kazzi Mcginty. Both of these professionals have worked for years in travel retail and domestic distribution in the perfumery and luxury goods.

Edouard Roose, Vice President of Sales, Dubai

Edouard Roose will take charge of developing Beaute Luxe's distribution for all of the company's brands in African domestic markets. Formerly, Edouard held positions for major groups such as LVMH, Givenchy, Kenzo and the Sprecher Berrier group of companies.

Viviane Kazzi Mcginty, Travel Retail Director, Dubai

Viviane Kazzi Mcginty will continue developing the travel retail strategy. Previously, Viviane worked for the Chalhoub Group and Al Fahim enterprises.

In Paris, the company is now joined by Claudia Rousseau as Chief Financial Officer, and Laura Roynard as Executive Assistant.

Claudia Rousseau, Chief Financial Officer, Paris

Claudia Rousseau will take charge of the complete coordination of the accounting and financial management of the company.

Laura Roynard, Executive Assistant, Paris

Laura Roynard will manage of the president's agenda and to ensure the transmission of information internally and externally.